

A Single Quote-to-Cash Solution for Transportation

Facing rapid changes brought on by continuous updates to digital technology, Transportation enterprises must adapt their approach to complex revenue lifecycle processes. A modern revenue management solution should be able to manage constantly changing data and monetize and bill for a variety of complex scenarios.

BillingPlatform Supports the Transportation Industry

- Expand revenue pricing packages beyond recurring or one-time billing to retain customers
- Package, charge, invoice, and provision exactly how you want
- Handle massive volumes of transactions in a single solution
- Effortlessly manage complex scenarios involving usage, bundled, hybrid and subscription pricing for all kinds of transportation industry platforms

“Because of BillingPlatform’s extensive integration capabilities coupled with an in-depth security and controls library, the company has added new subscription and charge methods, such as automatic renewals, over-consumption charges, and credit on-record features.”
